This document shall serve as a letter of authenticity for the aforementioned item, which James Spence Authentication, LLC has thoroughly examined.

The signature(s) is/are consistent considering a wide range of specific qualities including slant, flow, pen pressure, letter size and formation, and other characteristics typical of our extensive database of known exemplars. We have examined throughout our hobby and professional careers.

It is our considered opinion that the signature item, with the exception of the above mentioned, non authentic version(s), is/are genuine. Your item has been assigned a unique certification number, which is uploaded into our restricted database and can be confirmed on our website www.SpenceLOA.com at any time. This letter must appear on our proprietary water-marked paper and bear the live signatures of both James Spence and a notary public.

We appreciate your consideration of entrusting James Spence Authentication's judgment and look forward to examining additional collectibles for you in the near future.

Autographically Yours,

Apparently, after name-by-name examination, the below mentioned clubhouse signature(s) is/are deemed vintage non-authentic versions. From the 1920's to the present day, it has been common practice for clubhouse personnel (i.e. attendants, batboys, other players, etc.) to perform the duties of "ghost" signing for ballplayers. Often a non-malicious ritual, this custom must be defined in an effort to authenticate items properly.

It is our considered opinion that the signature item, with the exception of the above mentioned, non authentic version(s), is/are genuine.
